

ARTnews in Brief: New York's 1969 Gallery Heads to Tribeca—and More from November 6, 2020

BY

Claire Selvin, Tessa Solomon

November 2, 2020 3:46pm

1969's new location in Tribeca at 39 White Street.

PHOTO: DAVID WALSH

Friday, November 6

New York's 1969 Gallery Announces New Location

The New York–based art gallery 1969 will move from his Lower East Side space to a new location in Tribeca, which has been ascending among the city's hub for galleries of late. 1969 will occupy a 2,000-square-foot space ground floor space at 39 White Street beginning in December. The gallery will stage a three-day exhibition from December 3–5 titled “Miami Is A Beach: Cristina BanBan, María Frago and Jarrett Key” to inaugurate the space.